What

does

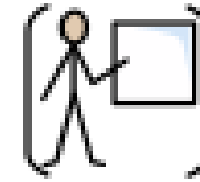

having

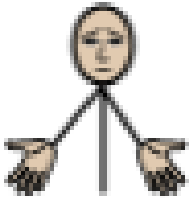

a

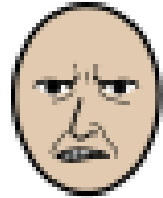

special

educational

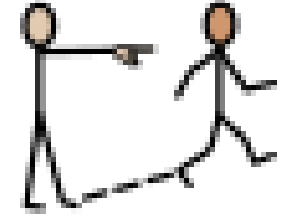

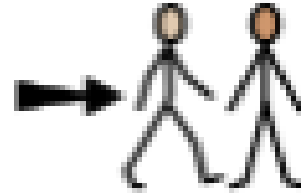

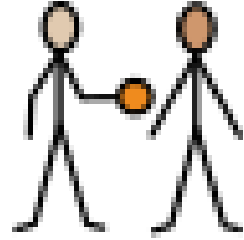

need

mean?

What is your approach to SEND?

How

can

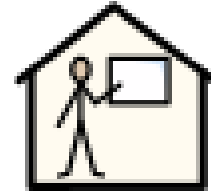

I

the

school

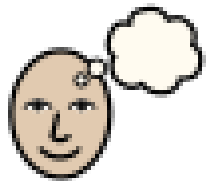

know

if

think

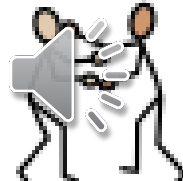

my

child

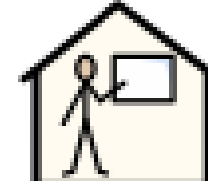

is

struggling

at

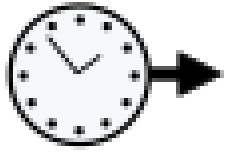

school?

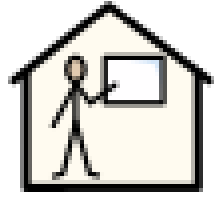

How

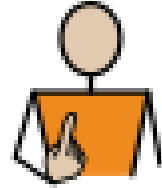

will

let

me

know

they

have

concerns

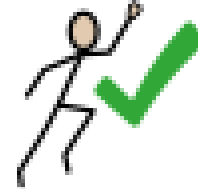

that

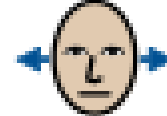

my

may

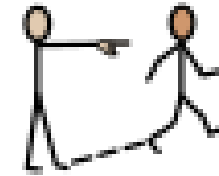

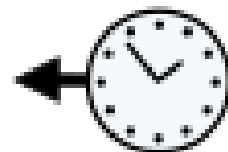

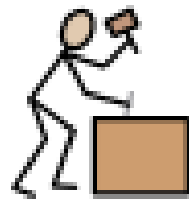

not

be

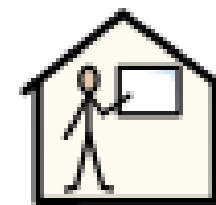

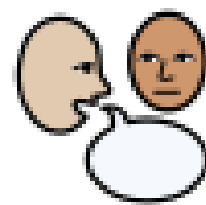

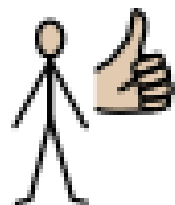

progressing?

If my child does have SEND who is the best person I can talk to at school?

What training or specialist expertise do

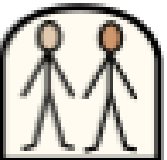

StuartRoad staff have around SEND?

What do I do if my child is still not making sufficient progress through a multi-agency support plan?

Where

can

find

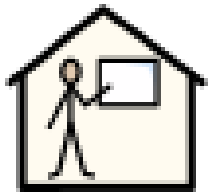

information

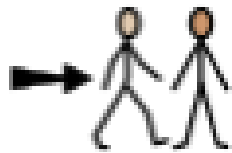

about

school

approach

to

pupils

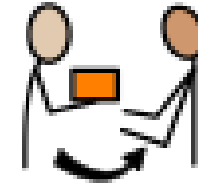

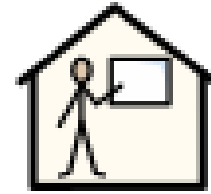

with

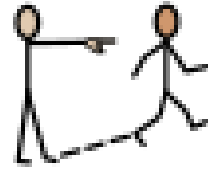

SEN?

What support can the school provide for my child with SEND?

How will the teaching staff adapt to my child's needs?

How does the school assess the pupils especially my child with SEND?

What will transition look like for my child?

Transition Plus 3

Specialist Support for children and young people identified with severe complex, persistent and enduring levels of vulnerability

Transition Plus 2

Targeted Support for children and young people identified with moderate levels of vulnerability

Transition Plus 1

Targeted Support for children and young people identified with mild levels of vulnerability (monitored within existing whole school / setting arrangements)

Universal Transition

How accessible is Stuart Road Primary to my child with SEND?

What support is available from your school for parents of pupils with SEND?

If I am not happy with the provision at the school, how can I share my concern or make a complaint?
